

Cancer Survivors Month Proclaimed At Commonwealth Atrius Cancer Center In Weymouth

Susan M. Kay, Mayor of the town of Weymouth, proclaimed June as National Cancer Survivors Month during a recent celebration of life held at Commonwealth Cancer Center (CACC) in Weymouth. Physicians from Commonwealth Hematology-Oncology (CHO) joined local patients and Mayor Kay as part of CACC activities to honor patients and recognize advancements in cancer care that are helping patients live longer, more fulfilling lives.

Local resident and Commonwealth Atrius Cancer Center (CACC) patient Dorothy Underwood (far right) recently joined (left to right) Dr. Michael Anderson, Medical Oncologist, and Dr. Claire Fung, CACC Director of Radiation Oncology, as Weymouth Mayor Susan M. Kay proclaimed June as National Cancer Survivors Month.